Designated by Congress, natural, cultural, historic, and recreational resources combine to form a cohesive and distinct area. Represents key pieces of our national history and identity and tells important stories about Colbert, Lauderdale, Limestone, Franklin, Lawrence, and Morgan counties. Come get your National Park Service passport and stamp at 468 North Court Street, Florence, AL 35630 or at any other site across the heritage area.

Natchez Trace Parkway (A-5-F-2)

www.scenictrace.com; www.nps.gov/natr

This 444-mile All-American Road and National Scenic Byway follows an ancient trail carved through woodlands by animals and the moccasins of Native Americans. From Nashville, TN to Natchez, MS, the Parkway connects three states. In Alabama there are interpretive sites for history, nature, bird watching, hiking, biking, boat ramps, picnicking, and camping. Just off the Natchez Trace in The Shoals area (Florence, Muscle Shoals, Sheffield and Tuscumbia), you'll encounter plenty of Alabama visionaries such as the birthplaces of Helen Keller and W. C. Handy, at the Frank Lloyd Wright designed Rosenbaum House, at the Alabama Music Hall of Fame and at FAME Recording Studio.

Sacred Way Sanctuary (B-6)

4409 County Rd. 200; (256) 648-0582

Sacred Way Sanctuary's Interpretive Center and Museum offers a journey through the history of the horse in the Americas and its relationship with the Native Peoples. Our Interpretive Center has been designed in conjunction with our Governing Council of Traditional Knowledge Bearers and Scholars in order to provide a more up-to-date, complete, and accurate history, and to ensure that all items are cared for in a sacred manner and respectfully displayed. Our Governing Council of Traditional Native Elders and Scholars from the United States and Canada ensure the information we present, our Interpretive Center, and horse husbandry techniques are all culturally, historically, and spiritually accurate and in line with traditional protocols.

❑ Past-Times, LLC - "The Overton Farm"(H-3)
 Overton Farm Road; (256) 810-4911
 Past Times LLC was organized by John L. (Bo) Williams and Sharon Hindman Hester for the purpose of rejuvenating property known as "The Overton Farm" located in Hodges, Alabama and using that property as an event venue. Abner Overton, a tobacco peddler from North Carolina, and his wife, Judy Mae, purchased 160 acres on Bear Creek in 1817, two years before Alabama became a state. Overtons lived on and worked the land from that time until it was purchased by the Tennessee Valley Authority in 1969 as a part of the Bear Creek Water Control Project. The Bear Creek Development Authority (BCDA) is charged with maintenance of the property and has leased the same to Past Times. The property still contains the Overton homestead, Overton Cemetery, two (2) 1800's log cabins, modern dorms, and a dining hall. Past Times is working diligently to get the property ready for a public opening for various events beginning Spring, 2022.

Yellowhammer Brewing (E-17)

2600 Clinton Ave. W; (256) 489-3510

Opened in 2010 by four guys who wanted to bring good, traditional beer to Alabama. Yellowhammer has grown rapidly in recent years and in 2015 we moved from a warehouse to a new facility at Campus 805. Our brewery has since doubled in size after the completion of a recent expansion which brought, not only more brewing space and production, but a Biergarten and Event Center as well as room for our new distillery. We are still focused on, and dedicated to, creating premium ales and lagers, drawing on Belgian and German brewing traditions with a Southern interpretation.

The Alabama Scenic River Trail is the only blueway that has it all—from mountain streams to river delta to the salty waves of the Gulf of Mexico. Paddling and powerboat experiences and exploration abound along nearly 5000 miles of accessible waterways on over 43 waterways with over 40 outfitters and adventure services to serve and assist you. We have amenities and campsites to support everything from long-distance touring to organized paddles to races, overnight trips or any kind of day trip you might imagine. It's all waiting for the whitewater enthusiast, the naturalist, and the family who just wants to play.

The Alabama River, Coosa River, Tensaw River, Tennessee River, Cahaba River, and other Alabama rivers, the Mobile-Tensaw delta; and Terrapin and Hatchett and Weogufka Creeks comprise the main waterways of the trail. They offer access to big cities and small towns and a way of life that hasn't existed for many years.

{ SHARING & PRESERVING NATURE }

Wild Alabama - 552 Lawrence Street, Moulton, AL; (256) 974-6166;

www.wildal.org

Wild Alabama staff and volunteers lead hikes in the Bankhead National Forest and Talladega National Forest year round. Driven by our mission to inspire people to enjoy, value, and protect the wild places in Alabama, our hikes introduce people of all ages to their National Forests and Wilderness Areas. All hikes are free of charge thanks to the generosity of individual donors and a grant from the Walker Area Community Foundation.

Wild Alabama also partners with the National Forests in Alabama to achieve program work, engage the public and protect the forest in the public lands they administer. Specifically, we work within the Talladega and Bankhead National Forests and will one day extend our work into Conecuh and Oakmulgee areas.

Additional programs include the Forest Ambassador program, citizen science projects for students, digital learning presentations, and the Forest Watch program as a means of protecting our last wild places.

Bee on the Brow

16951 County Road 89, Mentone, AL 35984; (256) 542-7725;
https://beonthebrow.com

Bee on the Brow is a beautiful mountain retreat. Our newly established Bed and Breakfast in Mentone, AL offers stunning views atop Lookout Mountain and boasts four luxurious guest suites that provide tranquility for a romantic getaway, a haven from life's stresses and fatigue, or a home base station for adventure in Northern Alabama. Whether you chose to stay tucked away in the serenity of the property or venture out to explore the things to do in Mentone, each morning begins with a gourmet breakfast that showcases local and seasonal delights, southern favorites, and, of course, honey. Each evening brings picturesque sunsets and star gazing from the expansive deck. Conveniently located halfway between DeSoto State Park and DeSoto Falls (three miles either direction), Bee on the Brow is the perfect stepping off place to escape the busyness of life and retreat to crisp air and vivid nature scenes or take a step back in time to small-town America with a day of antiquing and exploration in nearby Fort Payne.

Mentone Inn

6139 Alabama Hwy 117, Mentone; (256) 634-4836;

The Lodge at Gorham's Bluff

101 Gorham Drive, Pisgah, AL 35765;
www.gorhamsbluff.com

Welcome to our beloved Bluff where the instant allure is obvious—the view is spectacular. Hundreds of feet below, the mighty Tennessee River cuts a wide swath through the landscape. It is impossible to stand at the edge and take everything in—the sheer scope and immensity of it all—and not be dazzled. But that is just a fraction of what makes Gorham's Bluff so compelling. Stroll the charming streets, smile at the quaint picket fences, toast the sunsets, and fall in love with the community we have.

The Secret Bed & Breakfast Lodge

2356 AL Hwy 68 W, Leesburg, AL 35983; 256-523-3825;

Valley View Escape, LLC

18468 Co. Rd. 51 Collinsville, AL 35961; (256)996-3698; www.vrbo.com/1457067

Valley View Escape began as a vision to restore a 130+-year-old farmhouse. Years after completion and enjoyed by friends and family, it was evident this treasured historical home needed to be shared and enjoyed by others. The house sits on a hill surrounded by a 500-acre farm and overlooks the valley while distant mountain ranges provide a serene backdrop. The wrap-around porch with captivating views is idyllic for coffee lovers, conversationalists, book lovers and perfect for a game of checkers. Inside you will find much of the home with original floors and walls. The original two staircases are still functional adding to the character and charm. Downstairs consists of a master bedroom opening to a screened-in porch, 1 ½ bathroom, kitchen, dining area, and hallway with staircase, living area w/ fireplace, and additional dining area. Upstairs consist of a bathroom, 2 bedrooms, and 1 large room w/ 3 beds. Scattered throughout the property you will find quaint rustic buildings and old farm equipment adding to the historic theme along with the perfect setting for a campfire and s'mores. You will find plenty of activity within 20 miles or you may find yourself perfectly content enjoying the captivating views from the front porch.
