HEROES' HIGHWAY

ITINERARY

What to See and Do off of I-22 in North Alabama

I-22 serves as a Birmingham to Memphis expressway, cutting across rural areas in northwestern Alabama. As you drive the stretch through North Alabama, it may appear rural, but there are plenty of things to see and do, so stop, stretch and explore! We believe the experience will have you returning for more visits.

Must See Stops:

• Bankhead National Forest and Sipsey Wilderness (Winston County)

Approximately one mile north of Double Springs, Bankhead National Forest features 180,000 acres containing bluffs, canyons, waterfalls, springs and lakes. There are nine recreation areas scattered about the Forest, each offering a unique experience of its own and there are over 90 miles of recreational trails. Kinlock Falls is located along Hubbard Creek and offers a magnificent view and an area where people come to swim. Turkey Foot Falls is just a 30-minute walk from the Sipsey River Picnic Grounds and Recreation Area and is a popular waterfall for pictures. The Sipsey Wilderness, Land of a Thousand Waterfalls, lies within the Bankhead National Forest and is home to Alabama's largest tree, a tulip poplar with a 21-foot circumference at its base.

• Dismals Canyon (Franklin County)

So much adventure is waiting at Dismals Canyon. This attraction is a National Natural Landmark and offers hiking in pristine wilderness. There are dozens of grottos, two waterfalls, six natural bridges and giant moss covered boulders strewn. Come for a summer night tour on Saturday evenings when the canyon lights up with tiny creatures called Dismalites. These "glowworms" require a select habitat to survive and are unique to only a few places on Earth. They are "close cousins" of the rare glowworms found in Australia and New Zealand. There are cabins and campsites for overnight stays. Admission charged. Seasonal Hours.

• Lewis Smith Lake (Winston/Cullman County)

A regular stop on the Alabama Bass Trail, Smith Lake is located approximately 20 miles northwest of Birmingham, is the holder of five previous World Record spotted bass catches and highly rated in the state as a trophy saltwater striped bass fishery. The current lake record is 45 lbs. A deep, clear lake with feeder streams, bays and sloughs, it is also popular for weekend getaways where boating, skiing, wakeboarding, paddleboarding, swimming and cliff jumping are all on the agenda. It has 21,000 acres of some of the cleanest and deepest lake water in the United States and over 500 miles of beautiful tree-lined coastline.

• Looney's Tavern Entertainment and Cultural Center (Winston County)

Before closing its doors two decades ago, Looney's Tavern Entertainment Park hosted a variety of concerts, musical entertainment and Alabama's Official Outdoor Musical, The Incident at Looney's Tavern. Today, with the support of the community and the Winston County Arts Council, it is opening its doors once again as Looney's Tavern Entertainment and Cultural Center. The Center includes a 1500-seat outdoor amphitheater and a 300-seat indoor theater. The indoor theater is currently hosting live music and entertainment. Call for schedule.

• Natural Bridge (Winston/Marion County)

Natural Bridge Park features a 148-foot sandstone bridge that towers 60 feet above winding pathways, and it's the longest natural bridge east of the Rockies. The park has a picnic area perfect for bringing a lunch to eat before or after you hike the approximately two mile trail through the park. At the back of the park is a small waterfall, and there is a stream that runs throughout the park. During the spring, you'll find all kinds of wildflowers, and in the fall you'll see the vibrant fall foliage. Under the natural bridge is a cave-like bluff for exploring. This natural bridge formation dates back to two million years ago, and it is known that the Creek Indians lived in the area. Don't miss the Indian face that's etched by nature in the large rock! The park also features a great gift shop that has local products as well as products from all over the United States. Admission charged. Open daily from 8am to sunset, year round

For two days, festivalgoers are treated to live music, games, a dog show, 5K race, barbecue cook-off, car show and plenty of good food. Hosted by the City of Guin, the event is typically held the third Friday and Saturday in May. Mayfest takes place in downtown Guin at "the square." Free admission. (205) 468-2242

• Arley Day Festival (Winston County)

The Arley Day Festival, Car Show and Parade brings colossal fun to the small North Alabama town with a day filled with free, family-friendly activities. Typically held the third Saturday in May, the one-day event is a celebration of the town of Arley, the heart of Smith Lake, complete with a parade, car show, arts and crafts vendors, games, horse rides, food trucks and more. The event takes place at D. H. Hamner Park located on Helicon Road/Highway 77 in Arley. Free admission. <https://www.facebook.com/ArleyWomensClub/>

• Coalfest (Marion County)

Each year during Memorial Day weekend, the North Alabama community of Brilliant pays tribute to its roots in the coal mining industry with a free festival filling the downtown area with two days of family fun including live music, games, a look into the coal mining days, activities for children, arts and crafts and more. As music fills the air, festival goers can learn about the early history of coal mining in Brilliant with a guided tour of the historic Train Depot located in City Park. Brilliant Methodist Church, located on Main Street, will also be open for tours. A stop on the North Alabama Hallelujah Trail, Brilliant Methodist Church was built by local coal miners and remains an iconic cornerstone of the town. Free admission. (205) 465-2281 | <https://brilliantal.org/coal-fest/>

• 911 Festival (Winston County)

Over fifty years ago, the first 911 emergency call was made in the United States and the call was placed in the North Alabama town of Haleyville. In celebration, the town hosts a two-day festival offering activities for kids, street vendors, a parade, live music, antique tractor show and more. Always first Friday and Saturday in June, activities are held in downtown Haleyville. Free admission. 205-486-4611 | www.haleyvillechamber.org

• Mule Day (Marion County)

Held annually on fourth Saturday in September, this fun event celebrates the hardworking mules of the day. Activities begin Friday night with arts and crafts and food vendors, live music, fireworks and a 5K run at midnight. Saturday, come see the parade with mules, horses, jacks and jennies, along with a car show, arts and crafts, mule judging and cornhole and disc golf tournaments. Activities take place in and around downtown Winfield. Free admission. (205) 487-3002 | <https://www.winfieldcity.org/en/chamber-of-commerce/mule-day>

• Buttahatchee River Fall Fest (Marion County)

Everyone is invited to join the Hamilton Area Chamber of Commerce for some free family fun in downtown Hamilton the last Saturday in October. The Buttahatchee River Fall Festival is a family-friendly event offering a day of arts and crafts, music, tractor and car show, kids' area and more. Activities are held in and around the Court Square of the Marion County Courthouse and throughout the downtown area. The Festival is named after the Buttahatchee River, which zigzags its way through Hamilton and connects with the Tombigbee River in Mississippi. Free admission.
